

creating SPARKS

the sciences meet the arts at the South Kensington Festival

6-30 September 2000

109 - a visual interpretation of the table of elements

109 is a unique and innovative installation employing a range of new media. The result is an imaginative collaboration and vibrant exploration of the startling diversity of material that constitutes our universe.

Royal Geographical Society 6-30 September