

THE SOCIETY FOR ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY

FOUNDED 1874. INCORPORATED 1907.

THE objects of the Society are to encourage, assist and extend the knowledge and study of analytical chemistry and of all questions relating to the analysis, nature and composition of natural and manufactured materials by promoting lectures, demonstrations, discussions and conferences and by publishing journals, reports and books.

The Society includes members of the following classes:—(a) Ordinary Members who are persons of not less than 21 years of age and who are or have been engaged in analytical, consulting or professional chemistry; (b) Junior Members who are persons between the ages of 18 and 27 years and who are or have been engaged in analytical, consulting or professional chemistry or bona fide full-time or part-time students of chemistry. Each candidate for election must be proposed by three Ordinary Members of the Society. If the Council in their discretion think fit, such sponsorship may be dispensed with in the case of a candidate not residing in the United Kingdom. Every application is placed before the Council and the Council have the power in their absolute discretion to elect candidates or to suspend or reject any application. Subject to the approval of Council, any Junior Member above the age of 21 may become an Ordinary Member if he so wishes. A member ceases to be a Junior Member on the 31st day of December in the year in which he attains the age of 27 years. Junior Members may attend all meetings, but are not entitled to vote.

The Entrance Fee for Ordinary Members is £1 1s. and the Annual Subscription is £4. Junior Members are not required to pay an Entrance Fee and their Annual Subscription is £1 1s. No entrance Fee is payable by a Junior Member on transferring to Ordinary Membership. The entrance Fee (where applicable) and first year's Subscription must accompany the completed Form of Application for Membership. Subscriptions are due on January 1st of each year.

Scientific Meetings of the Society are usually held in October, November, December, February, April and May, in London, but from time to time meetings are arranged in other parts of the country. Notices of all meetings are sent to members by post.

All members of the Society have the privilege of using the Library of The Chemical Society. Full details about this facility can be obtained from the Librarian, The Chemical Society, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London, W.1.

The Analyst, the Journal of the Society, which contains original and review papers, information about analytical methods and reviews of books, and has a world-wide distribution, and Proceedings of the Society for Analytical Chemistry, in which are reported the day-to-day activities of the Society, are issued monthly to all Ordinary and Junior Members. In addition, all Ordinary Members receive Analytical Abstracts, providing a reliable index to the analytical literature of the world.

Forms of application for membership of the Society may be obtained from the Secretary, The Society for Analytical Chemistry, 14 Belgrave Square, London, S.W.1.
