We would like to thank the many individuals who have helped us to bring this book to print.

First and foremost, a huge thank you to Nigel Larsen, for being the best boss on the planet. Thanks Nigel! Secondly, to the many individuals with whom we have discussed aspects of the subject and the text. Steve Elmore, Kevin Sutton, Nico Nibberin and John van der Graaf deserve particular mention for injecting wise counsel on specific chapters. Jackie Healy deserves a huge thank you for her technical wizardry. Matt Walters is eternally in our debt for his patience and skill, particularly during the production of the figures. Thirdly, to all our painstaking proof-readers – especially Susie Meade, Peter Steel, Antonia Miller and Ashley Sparrow – thank you for bedtime reading beyond the call of duty. Our errors, of course, remain our own.

Finally, the biggest thank you of all to those who put up with us. To the inhabitants of room 129, past and present, a big thank you for making the Maillard reaction fun. JAG would like to acknowledge the infinite patience of PJS, which has been truly tried and tested and say a huge thanks to Daniel and Lee for all the Saturday sleeps in and smiley faces. Siân would like to thank Susie Meade, Nik Solomon and Mike Kennedy for all the chocolate breaks, their support and especially for their friendship.
