

Dear Student/Dr./Prof.,

We are delighted to invite you to register and use the online submission form to submit your abstract for the Organic & Perovskite Solar Cells Conference within the framework of the COST Action M1307 – “Stable Next-Generation Photovoltaics (StableNextSol)”, which will take place in Heraklion, Crete, Greece on 19-20 October 2016.

REGISTER HERE

The conference aims to centralize the participants' interest by presenting the most recent attainments, highlights, current challenges and perspectives, conclusions and suggested future works in Organic and Hybrid Solar Cells Technologies. In this context, the event will feature oral presentations given by experts in the field, as well as a poster session, providing the opportunity to students and young researchers to demonstrate their studies during Organic & Perovskite Solar Cells Conference.
