

'Amber Palace' is situated in Amber, the former capital of the Kachhwaha Rajputs, on a hillside overlooking Maota lake, 11 km from Jaipur on the Delhi - Jaipur road. The palace or the royal apartments lies inside the massive Amber fort complex with gateways, gardens, halls, stairways, pillared pavilions and temples. Some of the noteworthy architectural marvels in the complex are Diwan-E-Khas, Sheesh Mahal, Jai Mandir with its exquisite mirror work, Diwan-E-Aam, Sukh Niwas, Shila Mata Temple, Kali temple and Kesar Kyari, the well laid out garden.

Location of Jaipur

Jaipur is located in the colourful state of Rajasthan. It is the capital of Rajasthan and is about 258 km. from Delhi, 232 km. from Agra, 350 km. from Gwalior and 405 km. from Udaipur. One of the most popular tourist destinations in Rajasthan, Jaipur is a part of the famous Golden Triangle Tourist circuit that includes Delhi and Agra. Jaipur is well connected with major parts of the country and is easily accessible by air, road and train.

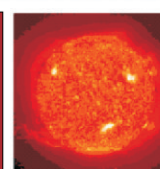

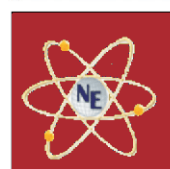

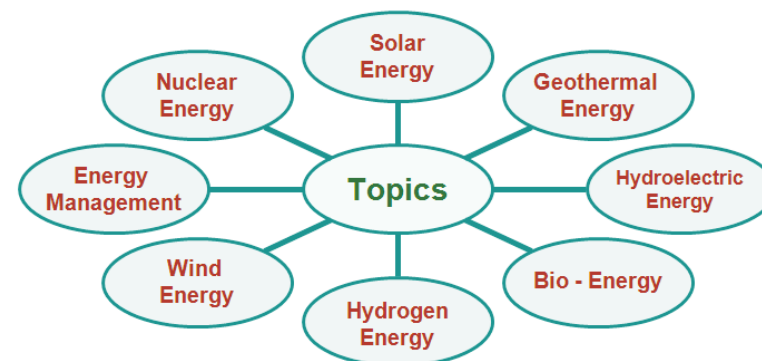

First Announcement

International Conference on Renewable Energy

17-21 January 2011

Key Dates

- Abstract submission : 16th Aug, 2010
- Paper submission : 15th Nov, 2010
- Reg. & Accommodation : 13th Dec, 2010

Organized by:

Centre for Non-Conventional Energy Resources
University of Rajasthan, Jaipur, India

Abstract Format

- The length of abstract should not exceed 200 words.
- It should be information rich, self contained, including figures particularly line diagrams, sufficient for referees to judge the quality of work.
- The title must be typed in bold letters of 12 pt. size, using Times New Roman font, centered between margins of 2.5 cm on all sides.
- The author's name(s), e-mail ID (s) and affiliations may follow the title indicating the name of author for correspondence by asterisk.
- The text may start after a gap of two lines in single space.
- Abstract should be submitted by e-mail attachment on or before Aug 16, 2010. The abstract file should be strictly in MS word or PDF format and sent to:

icre2011@gmail.com

Registration Fee

Faculty/Scientist : INR 3000
Research Students : INR 1500
Foreign Delegates : US$ 450
Students from abroad : US$ 300

Accommodation Fee

Guest House : INR 500 per night
Hostel : INR 200 per night

 Hotels as per cost

Mailing Address:

Prof. I. P. Jain, Convener ICRE-2011,
Centre for Non-Conventional Energy Resources,
14-Vigyan Bhawan
University of Rajasthan,
Jaipur-302055, India

Phone No : +91-141-2711049
Fax No. : +91-141-2711049
email ID : icre2011@gmail.com

Jaipur, known as the Pink City, was founded in 1727 AD by one of the greatest ruler of the Kachhawaha clan, the astronomer king Sawai Jai Singh. This remarkable city was considered a marvel of town planning and drew the peace-loving merchants and craftsmen to its wide streets and mohallas, which were earmarked for them. The Pink City, is full of things to see and do. There are impressive monuments, an excellent range of handicrafts, a wide variety of cuisine and entertainment that can keep you enthralled for days.

‘City Palace’ of Jaipur, the main palace is an imposing blend of traditional Rajasthani and Mughal architecture. The vast palace complex occupies one seventh of the walled city of Jaipur. Originally built by Maharaja Jai Singh II of the Kachhwaha clan of Rajputs, additions have been made to the palace complex by many of his successors.

‘Hawa Mahal’, Palace of the Wind, is one of the major landmarks of Jaipur. It is an integral part of the City Palace—an extension of the women's chambers, standing away from the main complex. This five storey building of unusual architecture is a stunning example of Rajput artistry, made of red and pink sand stone, beautifully outlined with white borders and motifs painted with quick lime.