

Royal Society of Chemistry Radiochemistry Group - A Celebration of 50 Years Past achievements, Present Innovation & Future Challenges

Wednesday 26th October

Royal Society of Chemistry, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London

Programme

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 12:00 – 1:00 | Lunch |
| 1:00 – 1:30 | History of The Radiochemistry Group
Anthony Ware |
| 1:30 – 2:15 | Past achievements, Present Innovation & Future Challenges – Environmental
Francis Livens, University of Manchester |
| 2:15 – 3:00 | Past achievements, Present Innovation & Future Challenges – Nuclear Industry
Dame Sue Ion, NIRAB |
| 3:00 – 3:30 | Coffee |
| 3:30 – 4:15 | Past achievements, Present Innovation & Future Challenges – Nuclear Medicine
Terry Jones, Visiting Professor, University of California Davis, Director of the PET
Research Advisory company |
| 4:15 – 4:45 | Innovate UK
Ray Chegwin, Innovate UK |
| 4:45 – 5:45 | Presentation of the 2016 Becquerel Medal to Melissa Denecke
Becquerel Medal Lecture: “Luce lumen ut intelligas - what has a quarter century of synchrotron studies revealed about f-element chemistry”
Melissa Denecke, University of Manchester |
| 5:45 – 7:00 | Drinks reception & Student Poster presentation |

1/2