

Directors of Undergraduate Teaching and Admissions Tutors meeting

A meeting of the Directors of Undergraduate Teaching and Admissions Tutors policy group will be held in Burlington House, Piccadilly, London, WJ1 0BA on 13th May 2019 at 11am

Agenda

Time	Agenda number and title	Paper number
10.45	Tea/Coffee and Registration
11.00	1.0 Welcome and introduction - - Simon Lancaster (University of East Anglia)
11.05	2.0 Chemistry curriculum framework A discussion about the RSC's work developing an 11 to 19 chemistry framework. - Izzi Monk (Education Policy Specialist, RSC) and Danièle Gibney (Interim Education Policy Manager, RSC)	DUT/0519:01
12.00	3.0 Chemistry for all An update about the RSC's 'Chemistry for All' project. What works in schools outreach and how can the evidence be disseminated? - Angela Hall (Project Lead, Chemistry for All)	DUT/0519:02
12:30	Lunch
13.15	4.0 Experiences of the subject-level TEF pilot Reflections from colleagues on their experiences of the TEF subject pilots. - Nicole Morgan (Interim Director, Education & Professional Practice, RSC), Katherine Holt (University College London), Richard Ansell (University of Leeds), Kyle Galloway (University of Nottingham)
13:45	5.0 Recognising teaching in higher education – policy position Review the RSC's draft policy position statement on recognising teaching in HE. - Annette Farrell (Programme Manager, Teacher Supply, RSC)	DUT/0519:03
14:00	6.0 Student hardship grants An update about the RSC's new student hardship grants. - Anna Dearden (Chemists' Community Fund Manager, RSC)	DUT/0519:04
14:20	Tea/Coffee

14:30	1.0	Nuffield research placements Presentation about student research placements. - Shamila Metcalf (Nuffield Foundation)
15:00	7.0	Critical thinking and problem solving in chemistry examinations Discussion led by about gender imbalance issues relating to critical thinking and problem solving questions - Nick Green (University of Oxford)	DUT/0519:05
15:20	8.0	Good practice guide for external examining Update from RSC on new guidance - Kim Smith (Specialist (Qualifications), Accreditation and Careers, RSC)	DUT/0519:06
15:30		Close	