

Royal Society of Chemistry 12th Annual Fluorine Group Meeting

30-31st August 2012
University of St Andrews

SECOND CIRCULAR

The RSC Fluorine Subject Group, initiated in 2001, aims to provide a forum to promote all aspects of fluorine chemistry through the organisation of meetings and participation in meetings with other groups both nationally and internationally.

The twelfth Annual Postgraduate Meeting will take place at the North Haugh, University of St Andrews on Thursday and Friday 30th/31st August 2012. The programme will start at lunchtime on Thursday and finish early afternoon on Friday. There will be a conference dinner and a late scientific session on the Thursday evening.

The delegate rate for the conference (including overnight ensuite accommodation in New Hall) will be £130. Delegates requiring B&B on Wednesday 29th August can book the extra night for £40.

The call for abstracts for both oral presentations (20 mins) and poster presentations is now open. The deadline for abstracts is Friday 10th August.

The organisers are pleased to confirm the following Invited Keynote Speakers, who have all accepted the invitation to speak.
