

Biological & Medicinal

Chemistry Sector

MALCOLM CAMPBELL MEMORIAL PRIZE 2009

Frequency	Bi-annual from 2003
Value	£2000 plus a medal. One free attendance at a BMCS conference in the year of the Award.
Timetable	Closing date 31 October 2008 Announcement of winner in January 2009 Presentation at September Medicinal Chemistry Symposium or other appropriate conference.
Eligibility	Individuals or teams in industry or academia with a British research centre mailing address (it is acknowledged work may be from several world-wide groups)
Requirements	One page summary of the work putting it into context and citing relevant publications. Seminal publications (which may include presentations in the public domain and/or patents) from the submitting individual or team relating to work of biological and/or medicinal chemistry interest including discovery and/or process development, agrochemical and aromachemical research. This may be a culmination of a series of papers published in recent years prior to the award. At least one publication should have been published since January 2006. Written permission must be given by Heads of Departments or Managers with authority to release detail of the work as part of the submission.
Submission	Preferably by email with attachments in Word to esw@confsec.co.uk or by post to RSC BMCS, c/o Elaine Wellingham 8 Bude Close, Nailsea, Bristol BS48 2FQ