

PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY CHEMICAL PHYSICS LICENCE TO PUBLISH

The Royal Society of Chemistry ("the RSC") publishes PCCP on behalf of the PCCP Owner Societies*.

The Work (title and brief description of the submission):

The Author(s) (names and affiliations). Please note: all Authors must have been informed of the full content of the Work at the time of submission.

If the Author(s) does not own the copyright in the Work, state who the Owner is (giving name and address) and state why the Author(s) does not own the copyright in the Work (e.g. the Author(s) wrote the Work in the course of employment with the Owner).

If the Author(s) is the Owner then, where used below, "the Owner" means the Author(s).

The Work consists of the paper or other contribution, including but not limited to, the text of the paper, figures, illustrations, diagrams and tables ("the Paper") and the accompanying supplementary material, that is, material that relates to the Paper that will not be made available as part of the Paper, but that will be made available electronically only ("the Supplementary Material").

1. In consideration of the RSC evaluating the Work for publication by the RSC (and publishing the Work if it so decides) the Owner grants to the RSC the exclusive right and licence throughout the world to edit, adapt, translate, reproduce and publish the Paper and a non-exclusive right and licence throughout the world to edit, adapt, translate, reproduce and publish the Supplementary Material in all formats, in all media and by all means (whether now existing or in future devised). Such licences are for the full term of copyright in the Work throughout the world (including all renewals, extensions and reversions). Such licences are freely transferable by the RSC and include the right to sub-license. The RSC may sell or distribute the Work, the Paper, and/or the Supplementary Material within a journal, on its own, or with other related material.

2. The Owner warrants, on behalf of all the Author(s), that:

- (a) The Owner is authorized by all Author(s) to enter into these arrangements.
- (b) the Work is the original work of the Author(s) and not copied (in whole or in part) from any other work or matter or (if the Work includes copyright works of persons other than the Author(s)) the Work is substantially the original work of the Author(s) and all necessary permissions have been obtained for use of such copyright works of such other persons.
- (c) the Work has not been and will not prior to publication by the RSC be published. This includes both printed and electronic preprints.
- (d) the exercise of the rights granted to the RSC by this Licence will not infringe the copyright of any person or result in any breach of confidentiality or the breach of any contract or of any law.
- (e) The Owner, or his/her funding organisation, will pay the requisite fee for publication of the Work and deposition of the versions of the submitted Work as set out in Clause 4 below.

3. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Licence:

- (a) This Licence shall take effect as a non-exclusive licence in respect of any parts of the Work as were written by an Author(s) in the course of employment by the British Government and copyright of such parts of the Work shall be reserved to the Crown.
- (b) This Licence shall take effect only to the extent permitted by the laws of the United States of America if and to the extent that the Work or any part of the Work was written by an Author(s) in the course of employment by the United States Government.

4. In consideration of the payment mentioned in 2(e) above:

- (a) the RSC will make freely available the final published version in all online formats on the RSC's website for an unlimited period of time.
- (b) the RSC will deposit the accepted version of the submitted Paper in selected repository(ies). No embargo period applies.
- (c) The RSC will deposit the final published version in the repository and in the format required by the Author's funding organisation. No embargo period applies.
- (d) The Owner may deposit the accepted version of the submitted Paper in other repository(ies) as required. No embargo period applies.

5. The Author(s) may, without seeking permission from the RSC (acting for all the PCCP Owner Societies):

- (a) reproduce/republish portions of the Work (including the abstract);
- (b) photocopy the Work and distribute such photocopies and distribute copies of the PDF of the Paper that the RSC makes available to the corresponding Author of the Paper upon publication of the Work for personal or professional use only, provided that any such copies are not offered for sale;
- (c) republish the Work in the theses of the Author(s) in printed form and make available the PDF of the Paper mentioned in (b) above in the theses of Author(s) via any internal website that the university of the Author(s) may have for the deposition of theses;
- (d) make available the PDF of the Paper mentioned in (b) above via the personal website(s) of the Author(s) or via the Intranet of the organisation(s) where the Author(s) works;

Persons who receive or access the PDFs mentioned in (b), (c) or (d) above must be notified that these may not be further made available or distributed.

- (e) adapt the Work and reproduce adaptations of the Work for any purpose other than the commercial exploitation of a work similar to the original;
- (f) reproduce, perform, transmit and otherwise communicate the Work to the public in spoken presentations (including those which are accompanied by visual material such as slides, overheads and computer projections).

6. The Author(s) must submit a written request to the RSC for any other use than those specified in Clause 5. All cases of republication/reproduction must be accompanied by an acknowledgement of first publication of the Work by the RSC in the form:

(original citation) – Reproduced by permission of the PCCP Owner Societies

7. If the RSC notifies the Author(s) that it will not be publishing the Work or if the Author(s) chooses to withdraw the Work prior to publication then all licences granted to the RSC as set out in this Licence cease.

8. This Licence shall be governed in all respects by English law. This Licence embodies and sets forth the understanding of the parties and supersedes all prior understandings and written agreements relating to the subject matter of this Licence.

SIGNED by the Owner or by someone duly authorised to sign for the Owner.
