The chart compares the 'Traditional' and 'Innovative' methods in terms of 'Human Health', 'Ecosystems quality', and 'Resources depletion'. The 'Traditional' method shows a decrease of 34% in 'Resources depletion', while the 'Innovative' method shows a decrease of 19% in the same category. The 'Ecosystems quality' remains constant between the two methods.