

British Academy of Forensic Science

Royal Society of Chemistry Chromatography & Electrophoresis Group

Science and Justice: Detection, Prevention & Presentation

A commemoration of the centenary of the death of Sir Thomas Stevenson (1838-1908)

Saturday 6 September 2008

Robens Suite, Guy's Hospital, London Bridge, London SE1

09.00	Registration/Coffee
10.00	Welcome and Introduction	Sir Jack Beatson
10.05	Sir Thomas Stevenson: His place in the development of forensic science and biochemistry	Dr Robert Flanagan, King's College Hospital
10.45	Coffee
	Session 1. Detection	Chair: Sir Colin Berry
11.15	Forensic toxicology	Dr Julie Evans, Eurofins
11.45	Arson, terrorism, drugs, and radiation	Prof Peter Myers, University of Liverpool
12.15	Telephone evidence in murder trials	Mr Ross Patel, Afentis
12.45	Commentary	Mr Robert Brown, Corker Binning
13.00	Lunch
	Session 2. Prevention	Chair: Prof Thomas Barnes, Imperial College
14.00	Forensic psychiatry: Treating the 'untreatable'	Prof Peter Tyrer, Imperial College
	Commentary	Her Honour Judge Wendy Joseph
14.45	Is substance abuse uncontrollable: the cannabis debate?	Prof Malcolm Lader, Institute of Psychiatry
	Commentary	Mr Rudi Fortson
15.30	Tea
	Session 3. Science at Court	Chair: Sir Jack Beatson
15.45	Translating science into evidence: does it make for better justice?	Prof Michael Redmayne, LSE
	Commentary	Mr David Fisher QC
16.30	Discussion/Round Table

Cost to include lunch and refreshments members £65.00 Students £20.00
6 CPD Points

✂.....

I wish to apply forPlaces at £65.00 each.....Places at £20.00 each

6th Sept 2008

Total enclosed £ Please make cheques payable to BAFS

Name.....

Address/DX.....

Tel/Mob.....Email.....

Name of guest/s.....

Please return to Sandra Dawson, Administrator, PO Box 6314, London N1 0DL.

DX 122249 Upper Islington. Email sandra@admin4u.org.uk