Accommodation in Brighton & Hove includes large seafront hotels, quirky boutiques and stylish hostels. If you love the outdoors then campsites in Brighton are a great way to get back to nature and explore the stunning South Downs countryside.

There is accommodation in Brighton to suit every budget so whether you fancy splashing out on a high-end luxury break or fancy a quick, value-for-money getaway there are plenty of options.

Budget Ideas

If you are looking for a bargain then try booking your accommodation in Brighton during the week or outside of the summer season for the best deals. There are also stylish city centre hostels with private en-suite rooms as well as dorm rooms.

Luxury Escapes

For a luxury break why not spoil yourself by booking a large, seaview room and include some time to be pampered in the spa. Alternatively simply savour a bottle of bubbly while you sit back and relax in your stylish suite.

Something Different

Just as the city is known for being alternative so is the accommodation in Brighton & Hove! There are boutique hotels with themed rooms ranging from mod inspired to vintage boudoirs. There are rooms with baths in the window or a hot tub in your own private courtyard.
