Terms and conditions apply to all training courses and offers

3-day Practical Essentials of GC benefit from how to apply the theory to the practical optimization of your detectors, inlets, columns, sample introduction modes and techniques, including headspace, SPME, thermal desorption and automated sample preparation. Includes Q&A session & practice for good management of an analytical GC/MS laboratory. Consider if you have < 2 years GC experience.

2-day The GC Clinic - advanced level which benefits users with how to develop methods, troubleshoot and perform excellent maintenance of all GC instrumentation. Includes Q & A session & practice for good management of an analytical GC/MS laboratory. Consider if you have > 2 years GC experience.

5-day The Complete GC Course is built from the 3-day Practical Essentials of GC and the 2-day GC Clinic courses. Placed back to back, analysts can attend both courses at once, or alternatively, learn the basics, go away and implement them and come back at a later point for the 2-day GC Clinic course. Consider if you have no formal GC training.

Why & how we set-up smart, affordable GC/MS training

Anthias Consulting Ltd

Diane Turner
GC/MS Applications
Specialist
Director of Anthias
Consulting Ltd.

"Instrument training should not be expensive - or be a sales pitch - or simply teach you how to press buttons! So as independent consultants in the field, we put our heads together to deliver smart and affordable GC/MS training solutions. We keep the costs down by opting to host the courses in the comfort of University facilities - not expensive hotels, and hosting in locations all around Europe that are cheap to get to and to stay in. Most importantly, analytical suppliers who are promoting these courses do not receive any commissions from us. They promote the services to support customers."

Dr Martine Barnes
