

Mid-Southern Counties Section Retired Members Lunch – Tuesday 12th March 2019

The lunch for retired members and their guests has been arranged at The Three Lions Restaurant, Stuckton, near Fordingbridge on Tuesday 12th March 2019 at 12.00 for 12.30.

The Three Lions, owned and run for many years by Mike and Jayne Womersley, is one of the hidden treasures of the Hants-Dorset area. Mike a former Michelin-starred chef and a Fellow of the Master Chefs of Great Britain, has had many glowing reviews and other awards including the Best Chef finalist in the Trencherman Guide 2017 for his cooking, which he describes as modern British/French. In 2017 the Restaurant also received a Trip Advisor Certificate of Excellence and achieved 22 years in the Good Food Guide, whilst it was listed in Hardens Best UK Restaurants for 2018.

Members and guests may choose from the menu set out below. Vegetarian and coeliac dishes are also available. The cost of the three-course lunch is £27.50 per head for RSC members and their partners including wine and a glass of sherry or soft drink beforehand. Non-members are welcome to attend and the cost will be £33.50 per head.

Those wishing to attend are kindly asked to notify Ian Anderson as soon as possible and in any case by Friday 1st March as space may be limited. Payment and meal choice, from the menu below, are requested for members and their guests at the time of booking. Please make cheques payable to the Royal Society of Chemistry, Mid-Southern Counties Section Trust.
