

Diversity in Chemistry Breakfast

York U will host its first-ever global women's breakfast event, and all are welcome!

Wednesday, February 12, 2020

8:30-10:30 AM

CB 330

Join us for the inaugural meeting of a new group on campus, and engage in an informal discussion about equity, diversity, and inclusion in chemistry, and of course, for some breakfast!

Sustainability note: Please bring reusable coffee mugs and cutlery if possible!
