

1st Asian Conference on Ionic Liquids

Ionic Liquids: Engineering and Applications

Venue: Dalian Institute of Chemical Physics

Dalian, P.R. China

Dates: 5-8th November, 2008

The China Ionic Liquid Laboratory (CHILL) and the Dalian Institute of Chemical Physics (DICP) in collaboration with the Royal Society of Chemistry (RSC) and the Queen's University Ionic Liquid Laboratories (QUILL) are pleased to announce the 1st Asian Conference on Ionic Liquids to be held at Dalian Institute of Chemical Physics in Dalian (P.R.China) on November 5th-8th 2008.

Event organizers:

Prof Urs Welz-Biermann (CHILL, China), Dr. Martin Atkins (BP, China), Prof. Kenneth R. Seddon (QUILL, UK), Dr Alejandra Palermo (RSC) and Sarah Ruthven (Editor of Green Chemistry),

The Conference will involve 6 plenary talks, 6 keynote talks and 15 contributed lectures. Offers of abstracts are now invited (for both oral and poster presentation).

Abstracts submission online by 30th September 2008

Pre-symposium:

A German - Chinese pre – symposium will be held on Sunday 2nd

- Tuesday -4th November sponsored by DFG and NNSFC

For more details see: <http://www.chill.dicp.ac.cn/sgw/>

The Conference is focused on Ionic Liquids with particular interest on engineering and application aspects, such as Industrial Synthesis at Scale, IL Registration and Toxicity, Reactors, Engineering Aspects, Material Applications, and Electrochemical Applications. One goal of the conference is to establish whether ionic liquids can be effectively used for promoting the progress of the electrochemical energy storage devices, and to establish an Asian forum where leading experts in the field can meet, report and discuss the results so far achieved in this important scientific and technological area.

Invited speakers include:

INDUSTRIAL SYNTHESIS AT SCALE

- Representative from Merck KGaA / Germany

IL REGISTRATION AND TOXICITY

- Representative from BASF AG / Germany

REACTORS

- Prof. Laurence Weatherley, University of Kansas

ENGINEERING ASPECTS

- Representative from Eastman / USA

MATERIAL APPLICATIONS

- Prof. Weimin Liu, Lanzhou ICP / China

ELECTROCHEMICAL APPLICATIONS

- Representative from Trekion / Japan

Registration Costs (Including all lunches, dinners and refreshments during the conferences):

Student 500 RMB; Academics 2.000 RMB,

Industry participant 4.000 RMB (100RMB≈15USD≈9.5EUR)

Online registration by 30th September 2008:
