

For your 2017 diary

Royal College of Physicians, London

Medicinal Plant lectures 2017

---

Medicinal plant lectures: Helpful and troublesome plants

Monday 19 June 1:30-6:00

Medicinal Plants in the treatment of respiratory disease by Noel Snell, RCP Garden Fellow, Consultant physician, Royal Brompton Hospital

Allergic reactions and how plants are involved

Joanna Sheldon and Tim Wreghitt

Medicinal plant lectures: Dangerous plants

Monday 17 July 1:30-6:00

Plants which cause liver disease. Graham Foster RCP Garden Fellow Professor of Hepatology at Queen Mary, University of London

Plants that kill.

Robin Ferner, Professor of Clinical Pharmacology, Birmingham University

Medicinal plant lectures: Keeping an eye on herbal medicines

Monday 11 September 1:30-6:00

The Control and Registration of herbal medicines

Ms Sue Harris, Medicines & Healthcare Products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) TBA

Medicines from plant, examples from East and West

Professor Peter Hylands, Head of the Institute of Pharmaceutical Science, King's College, London.

Teas and Garden Tours included on each day

---

Website and Podcasts

Garden plant website and database <http://garden@rcplondon.ac.uk>

Podcasts from the garden <https://soundcloud.com/rcp-garden>

The Garden contains almost 1100 plants from around the world important in the history of medicine and the development of medicines from the earliest times to the present day.

There is public access to the Garden on weekdays and free guided tours at 2pm on the first Wednesday of each month from March to October (booking via Reception desk on 020 3075 1200). For groups, please contact social.events@rcplondon.ac.uk

Queries: garden@rcplondon.ac.uk