Our nearest railway station is Deansgate, which is 10 minutes' walk away.

We are 15 minutes' walk away from Manchester Oxford Road station, 25 minutes' walk away from Manchester Victoria station, and 30 minutes' walk away from Manchester Piccadilly station.

You can travel to Deansgate station on the train from Manchester Piccadilly and Manchester Oxford Road railway stations.

The free Metroshuttle bus service stops at all city centre railway stations. All 3 Metroshuttle services will bring you within 5 minutes' walk of the museum.

Visit the Transport for Greater Manchester website for more information about travelling by train to Manchester.

TRAVELLING BY CAR

If you're travelling into the city from the motorway, head towards the M60 ring road around Manchester, and look out for the brown tourist signs directing you to the Museum of Science and Industry.

The postcode for your GPS satnav is M3 4FP.

Our car park and the nearby NCP car park on Water Street are now both closed but you can:

- park all day for £6.50 at the Park Avenue RCP car park (8 Albion Street, M1 5NZ) when you tell them you're visiting the Museum of Science and Industry
- find the nearest NCP car parks

There are 2 spaces for Blue Badge holders on Lower Byrom Street next to our main entrance.
