

Building an open future with Read & Publish

Our transformational open access model supports researchers all over the world

Through Read & Publish, institutions can:

read any paper published in an RSC journal

publish gold open access in all hybrid RSC journals

The story so far

68

Institutions across

countries

have a Read & Publish agreement

Read & Publish helps both authors and institutions...

...gradually tip the balance of their publishing output towards open access

In 2018, institutions with a Read & Publish agreement:

published

703

peer-reviewed OA articles in RSC journals

made up

42%

of OA articles published in RSC hybrid journals
