Calcium is essential for all living things, particularly for the growth of healthy teeth and bones.

Calcium chloride is added during the making of some cheeses to ensure formation of a firm curd.

Limestone (calcium carbonate) is used in construction. Lime (calcium oxide) helps make cement.