

Figure A1: FTIR analyses of the LBMNC and LBMNT samples as milled showing no difference between them and the sample without CNT (LBMN). The peak marked with * in the LBMN sample corresponds to water and may appear because of the presence of moisture in the sample.