

Movie 1. HAWK applies controlled, targeted stimuli to freely moving worms. A series of compiled videos shows four distinct trials delivered on anterior and posterior targets. Frames with the green dot are during the stimulus application. Movie frame rate is 10 fps. Frames are captured at approximately 10 fps, with delays during large stage translations at the beginning and end of stimulus application.