

Final orientations of BMP-2 based on their initial configurations. The end-on B configuration has been explained within the paper. The dipole moments are at 45° with respect to the substrate. However, each configuration had different secondary structure content at the final adsorbed state as shown in Table 1.