

Figure S3: Correlation and covariance matrices (cf. labels in inset) computed for the Raman spectra of the three influenza variants studied in the paper (cf. labels); as seen, none of the principal component combination allows a clear assignment of the spectrum to a given variant.