

Figure S1 PCA score plot for the first two components of the model obtained from measurements with Carbo-pack B. Each triangle represents one measurement. The different colours represent different buildings.

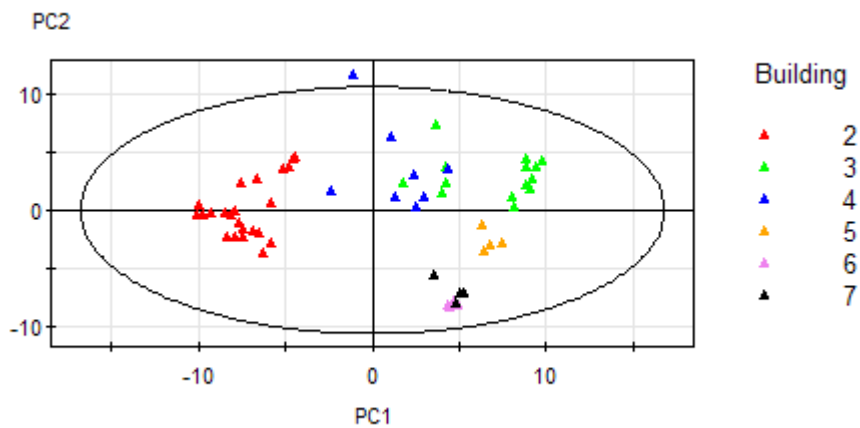

Figure S2 PCA score plot for the first two components of the model obtained from measurements with Chromosorb 106. Each triangle represents one measurement. The different colours represent different buildings.