

Supplementary information to:

Communication Ref.: B618028K

Title: A finite-cluster phase in Lambda-DNA-coated colloids

Long-time observations of the cluster formation of our DNA-coated colloids show that equilibrium finite-size clusters have grown within a day (Fig. 2d), but stopped growing further. A one month old sample (Fig. S1) shows that the clusters stay size-limited.

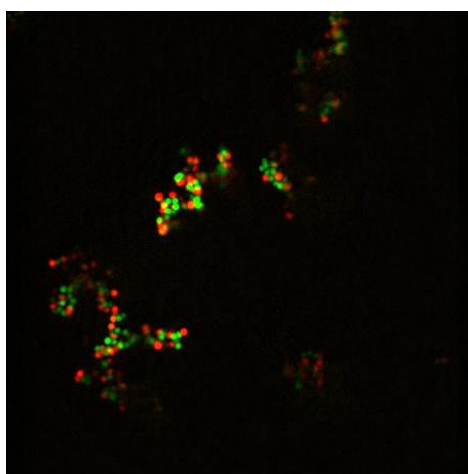

Figure S1: Confocal image of the clusters observed after 1 month.