

Supporting Information

Fig. 1 Size distribution of primary particles measured by static light scattering measurements performed at 25 °C with a Mastersizer 2000 Hydro SM device (Malvern) . The samples were diluted in the measuring cell (simple scattering conditions) and submitted to a rather intense agitation to ensure homogeneity.