

Average crossing point (cp) values per experimental group determined by duplicate PCR for each of the 8 verified housekeeping genes. Error bars represent standard error of the mean; X axis labels refer to the number of days over which MMPi was received (please refer to “Study Outline” for further details).